By Odalo M Wasikhongo

WasiWorks Studio LLC. Paperback. Condition: New. Odalo M Wasikhongo (illustrator). 36 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 8.5in. x 0.2in. This is an original story about an elementary school boy, Bobby Little, who goes on his first camping trip with his class. On the trip, he experiences the wonders of nature. The young reader shares the joy of discovery with Bobby Little, as he looks closely at nature, observing and sharing his delight with the other students on the trip. Like Bobby Little, the young reader sees the beauty of Mother Nature's details (trees, insects, birds, landscapes), and wonders that the group enjoys excitingly with Bobby Little and the class. Adventures with Bobby Little is a fictional color-illustrated book series for young elementary readers. It takes children on journeys through the life of an imaginative elementary schoolboy, who grows up in an animated multicultural world dealing with a variety of moral and social related issues and situations. Young readers both learn from and enjoy their journey with Bobby Little. Children imagine a diversity of careers for themselves; they learn to see nature on camping trips, and gain other knowledge as they travel with Bobby Little. Each book aims to stimulate reading comprehension, vocabulary...
